 "Thy Will Be Done?"- Lorie and Dennis Nixon, an Altoona, Pennsylvania fundamentalist Christian couple lost two children to treatable illnesses because they relied on prayer rather than medical care. The Nixons claim that it was God's will but a jury has convicted them of involuntary manslaughter and they are facing prison terms. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutzky)
 "The High Cost of Dying"- large conglomerates are buying up thousands of funeral homes and cemeteries all over the country. Includes an interview with Darryl Roberts, author of a whistle-blowing book called Profits of Death about the industry's practice of price gouging. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Rome Hartman)
 Andy Rooney Topic: "Clinton"- the current White House sex scandal

02/08/98 "Zero Alert"- even though the Cold War is over the U.S. and Russia still have thousands of nuclear weapons poised for immediate launch. Critics charge that, with the Russian economy and its military in disarray, chances of an accidental launch during what is perceived as an international crisis have never been greater. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Leslie Cockburn)
 "Khawar v. the Globe"- a libel suit is now before the California Supreme Court involving Khalid Khawar and The Globe, a supermarket tabloid which named Khawar as the assassin of Robert Kennedy. Respected news organization are backing The Globe claiming that a loss for the tabloid would set a legal precedent which could interfere with their reporting of the news. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Marti Galovic Palmer)
 "War of Words"- a report on the efforts to enforce a French-language-only policy in the Canadian Province of Quebec. Critics charge the provincial government with "genteel ethnic cleansing" because the police are fining businesses displaying any signs in English. (C: Morley Safer - P: Steven Reiner, Elizabeth Pearson)
 Andy Rooney Topic: "My Opinion"- what Andy thinks about events in the news
